- Joseph Smith's First Vision
- Church was started by God
- These words are central to the first vision
 - "This is My Beloved Son, hear ye Him."

First Vision

- ... I saw a pillar of light exactly over my head, above the brightness of the sun; which descended gradually until it fell upon me ... When the light rested upon me I saw two personages (whose brightness and glory defy all description) standing above me in the air. One of them spake unto me, calling me by name, and said, (pointing to the other) ...

First Vision

- ... This is My beloved Son, hear Him.”

Church History, Volume 1, page 9

First Vision

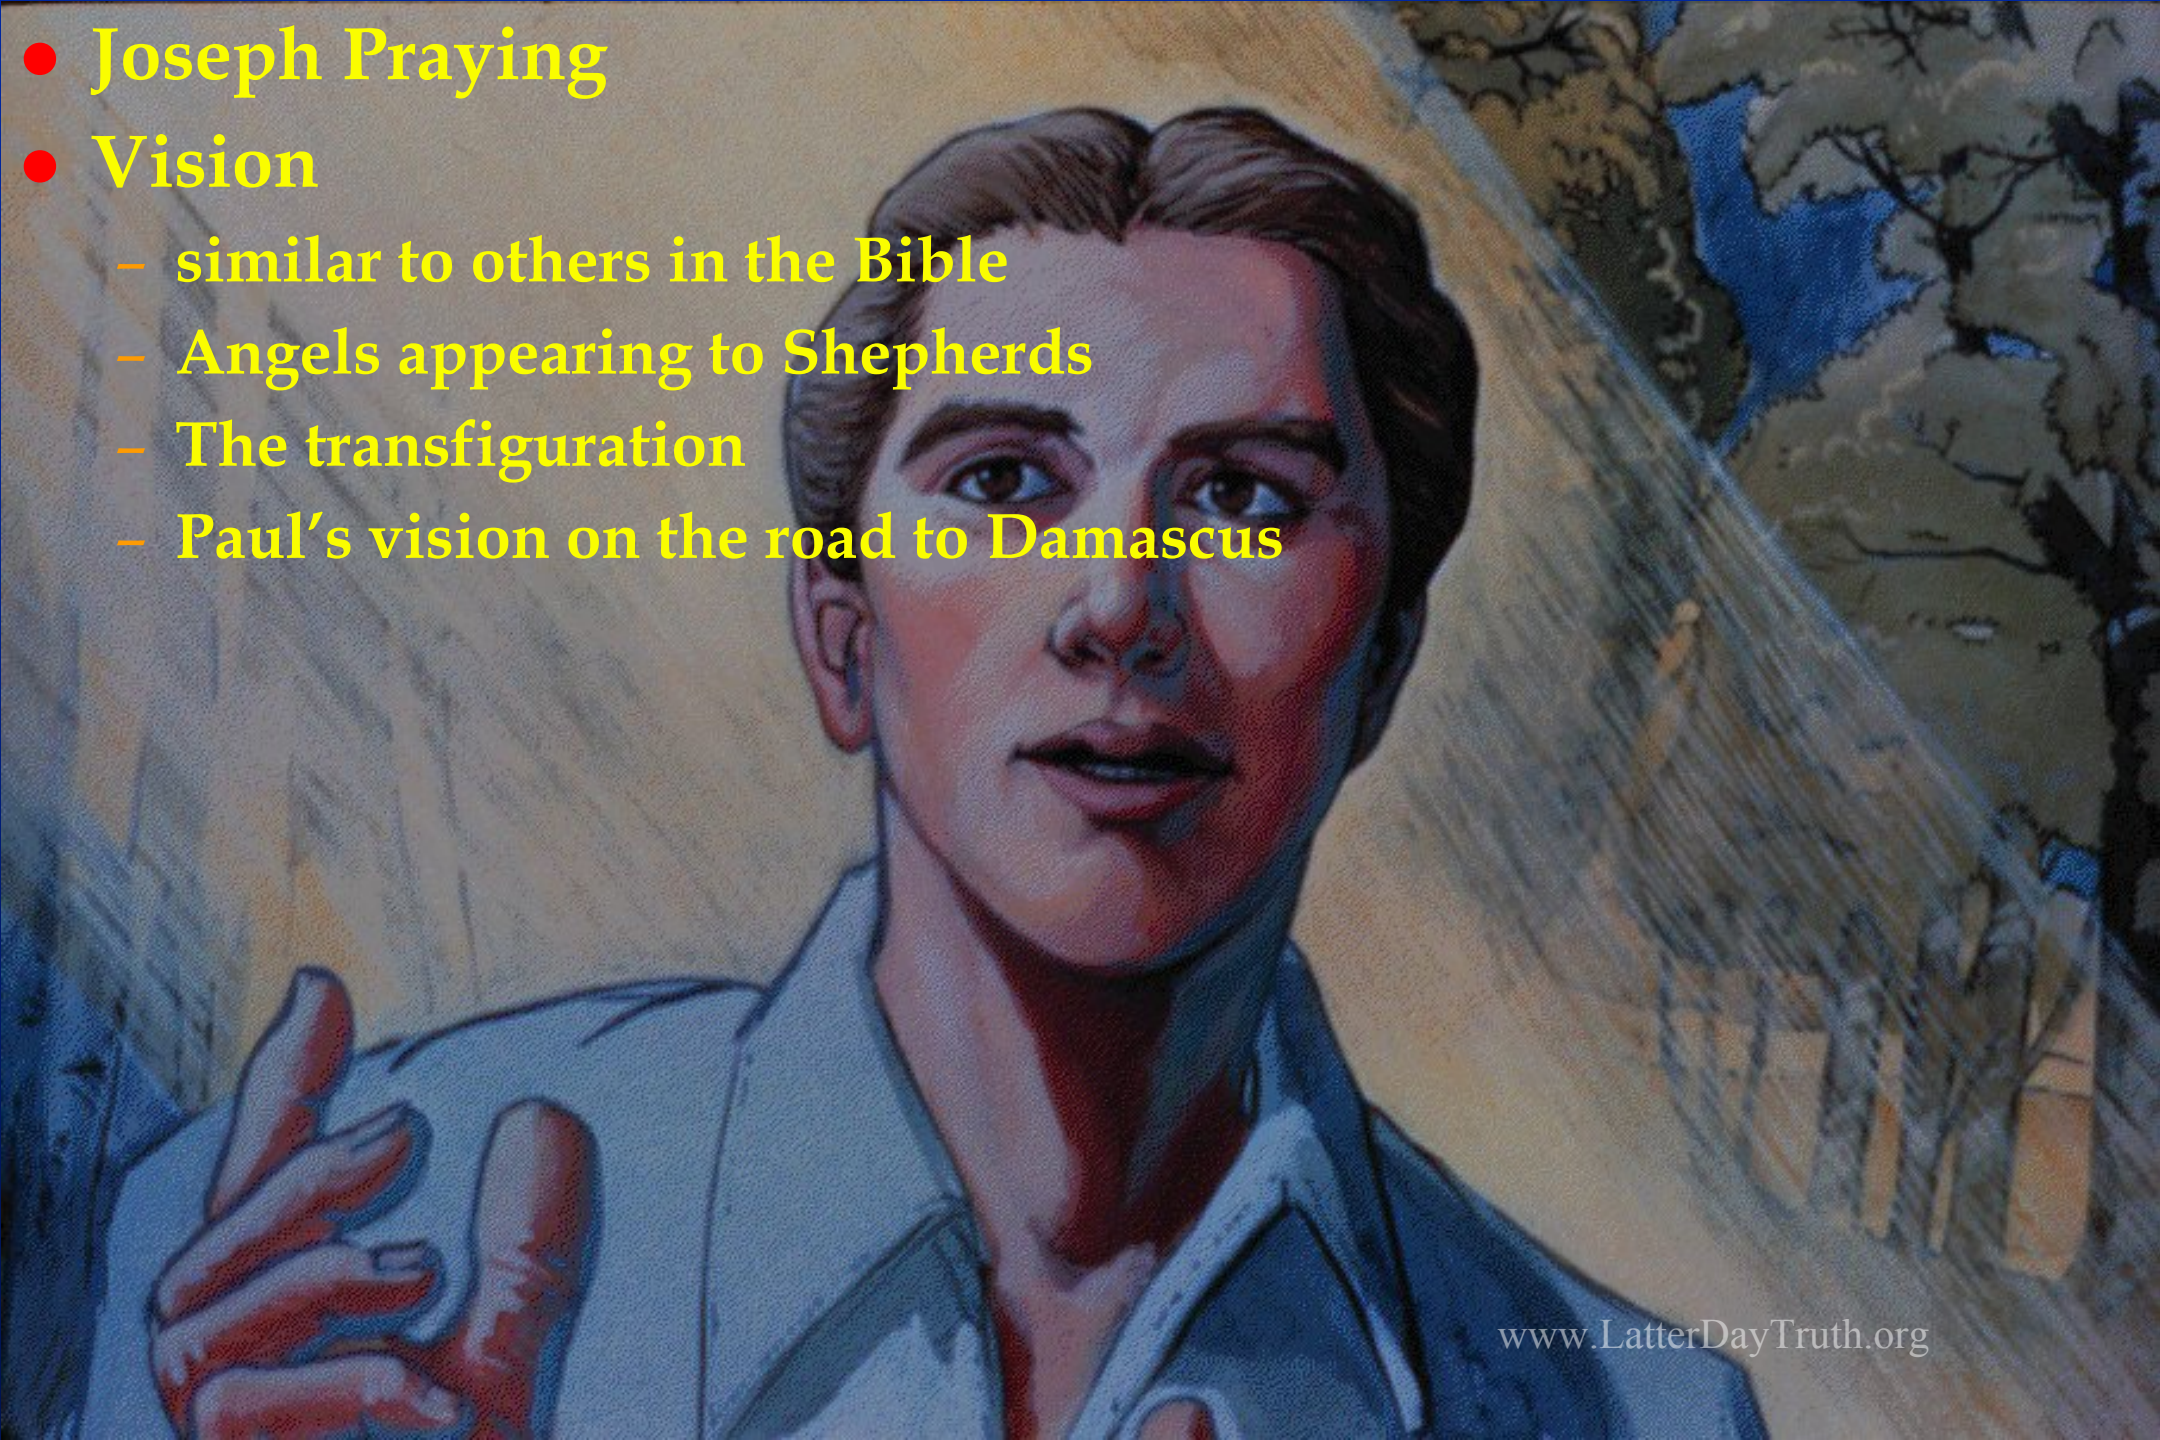

- My object in going to inquire of the Lord was to know which of all the sects was right, that I might know which to join ... I was answered that I must join none of them ...

Second Vision

- ... on the evening of the ... twenty-first of September, after I had retired to my bed for the night, I betook myself to prayer and supplication to Almighty God.
... While I was thus in the act of calling upon God ... a personage appeared at my bedside
...

Church History, Volume 1, page 12

Second Vision

- He called me by name, and said unto me that he was a messenger sent from the presence of God to me, and that his name was Moroni. That God had a work for me to do, and that my name should be had for good and evil, among all nations, kindreds, and tongues; or that it should be both good and evil spoken of among all people.
Church History, Volume 1, pages 12, 13.

Second Vision

- He said there was a book deposited written upon gold plates, giving an account of the former inhabitants of this continent, and the source from whence they sprang. He also said that the fullness of the everlasting gospel was contained in it, as delivered by the Savior to the ancient inhabitants.

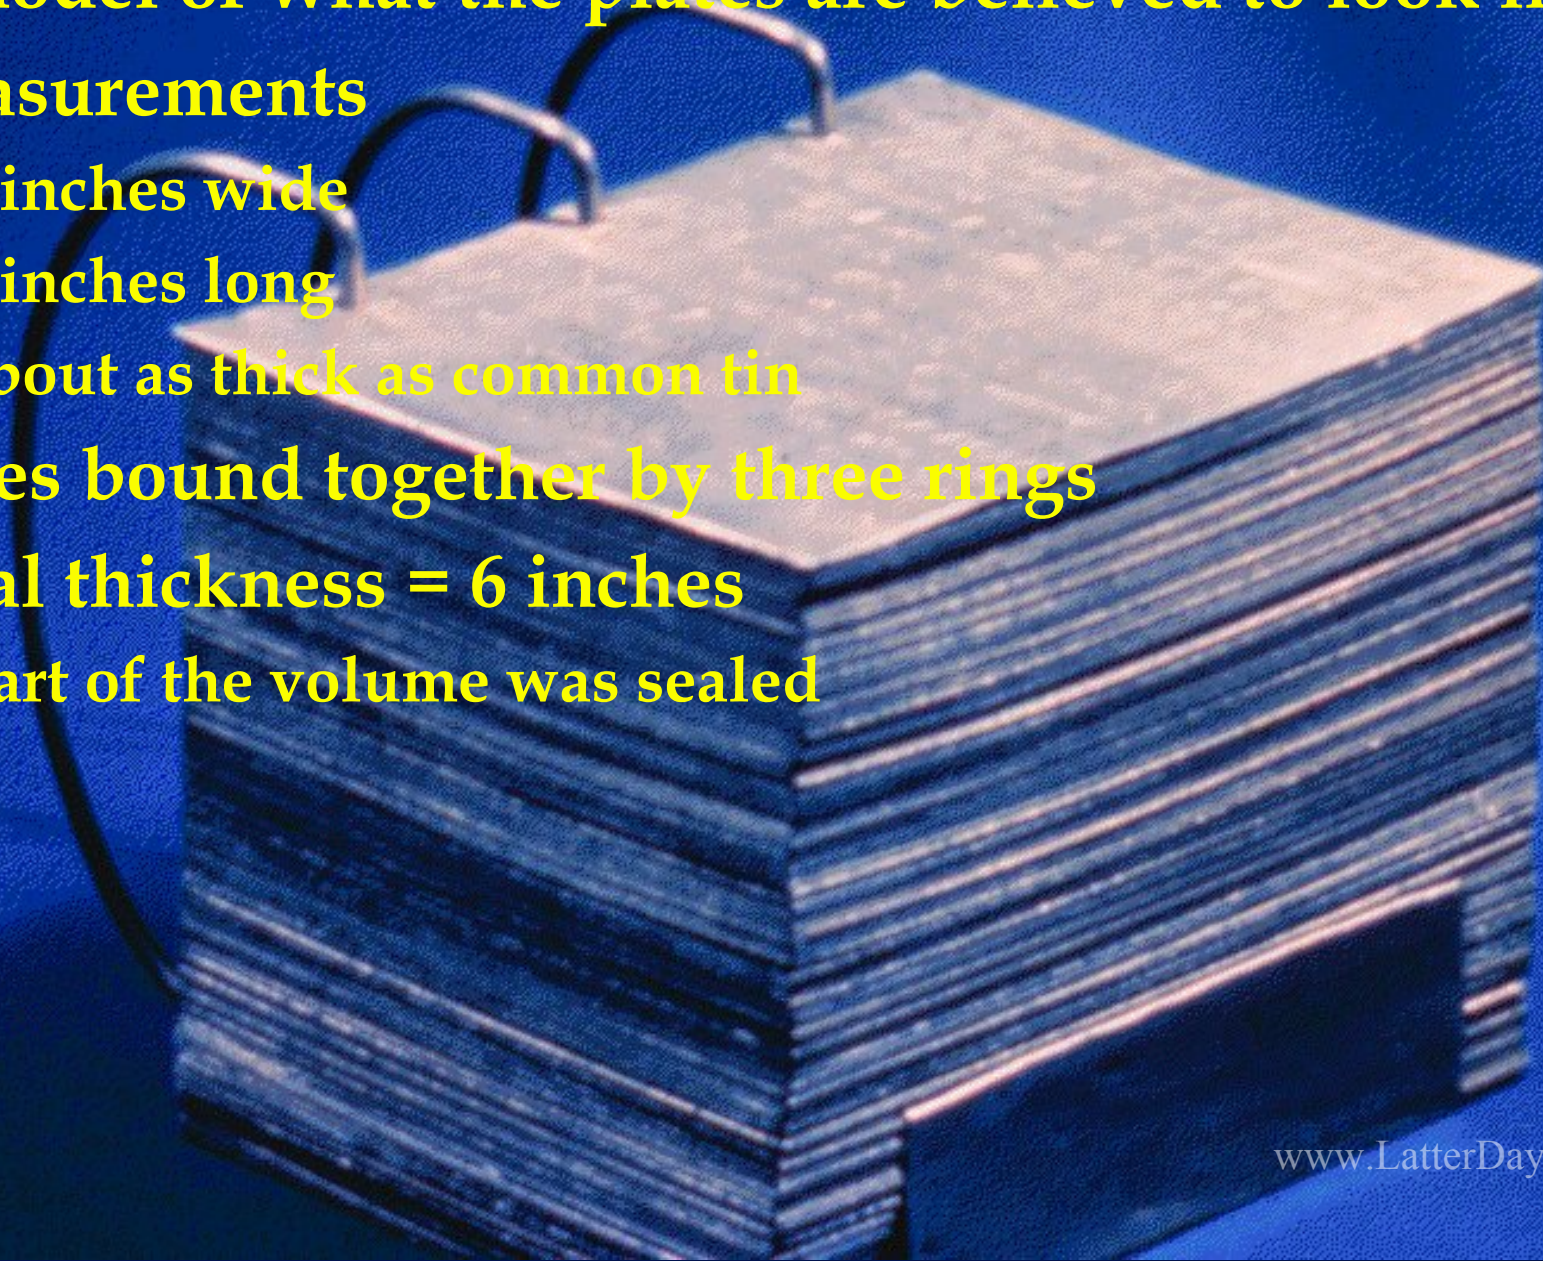

Church History, Volume 1, page 13.

Second Vision

- After telling me these things, he commenced quoting the prophecies of the Old Testament ... He also said that this was not yet fulfilled, but was soon to be.
