Business Rules of Herald Office,

To Patrons, Book Agents and Branch Presidents:

The following instructions are issued in order to promote the circulation of the church publications and facilitate the transaction of business with the Herald Office:—

1. Branches are requested to appoint competent agents, either the president or another, through whom all orders and remittances should be sent. Such agents are requested to make an active canvass for subscriptions for the Saints' Herald, Autumn Leaves, and Hope, the publications of the church; to make sales of books, tracts, pamphlets, Sunday school supplies, etc.; and to collect accounts promptly.

2. Agents will not be furnished stocks of books to carry, but will be given sixty days on all orders. A discount of ten per cent will be allowed on all books sold. No discount on Herald, Leaves, Hope, Gospel Quarterlies, or tracts. Ten per cent will also be allowed on all old accounts—due July 1, 1895. (Collections requested.)

3. Delinquents will in all cases be stricken from the mailing lists when their subscriptions are one year overdue.

4. Those who receive the Herald free must be vouched for as entitled to it, by some of the ministry acquainted with their circumstances.

5. Patrons are requested to order through their local book agents in branches; or scattered members through the traveling ministry. If impossible, order direct.

6. The traveling ministry are allowed ten per cent on book orders, and the cost of money orders and postage on remittances for the church papers. Those sending orders are looked to for settlement.

7. Orders amounting to less than fifty cents must in all cases be accompanied by the amount.

8. Remit by post office or express order, or draft. Do not send checks on local banks. Registered letters are at the risk of senders.

9. Write all addresses in full, giving Town, County, and State. Send addresses in the names of parties to whom papers or other matters are sent. When changing address, give post office to which papers have been going. Dates on yellow labels tell when subscriptions expire.

10. Agents or branch presidents are requested to keep the Herald Office card (sent herewith) posted in a conspicuous place, with the name of agent attached.

THE SAINTS' HERALD. (Established 1860.)

Official Publication of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Weekly, published Wednesdays; issued by the Board of Publication at Lamoni, Decatur County, Iowa; Joseph Smith, Editor; R. S. Salyards, Assistant Editor; Heman C. Smith and Joseph Luff, Corresponding Editors; The HERALD contains reports of the progress of the church in all the world, from ministry and laity. The general movements of the world are noted that its readers may be informed upon the leading questions affecting the development of the latter-day dispensation and the conditions and progress of humanity. It contains the following departments, indicative of its contents: Cover articles; Editorial; Original Articles; Selected Articles; Letter Department; Mothers' Home Column; Sunday School Work; Conference, Reunion, and Sunday School Association minutes; Miscellaneous, including pastorals, reports of public discussions, etc. The HERALD reflects the growth of the church; its columns contain the thought and counsel of its best and leading minds. No family, no one interested in the great latter-day work should be without it. It states the movements of the world and is an index to the signs of the times, the religious movements and general developments peculiar to the age. Sixteen three-column pages, size  $9\frac{1}{2}$  by  $12\frac{1}{2}$ , and four-page cover.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER

DAY SAINTS. Written and compiled by President Joseph Smith and Apostle Heman C. Smith. Invaluable as a correct historical narrative, as a means of conversion to truth, and as a defensive weapon in meeting old and new objections urged against the latter-day work.

It contains important documents connected with the establishment, growth, and internal and external affairs and progress of the church. The revelations given in this dispensation are inserted, in connection with accounts of the circumstances under which they were given. Biographical sketches, illustrations, complete indexes, side-notes for ready reference, etc., are some of the features of the work. Volume 1 begins with the birth of Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer, in 1805, and narrates the circumstances of his calling and ministry, the rise of the church in 1830, and until the close of the year 1835. Volume 2 continues the history up to June 27, 1844,—to the assassination of Joseph and Hyrum Smith. <sup>1900</sup> Volume 3 narrates the rise and general features of the factions of the church, incidentally, until the beginning of the Reorganization, the history of which it includes up to or about the year 1873.

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE, TEM-PLE LOT SUIT.

This work is an abstract of the sworn testimony of both Plaintiff's and Defendant's witnesses in the suit of the Reorganized Church versus the Hedrickites (a faction from the original church) for title to the Temple Lot at Independence, Missouri. The testimony of old Latter Day Saints who were with the church in its early days, and who are now in the Reorganized Church, and in the Utah Church, besides that of leading officials of both churches, and the testimony of members of the Hedrickite organization, is given; also the statements of said witnesses under cross-examination and re-cross examination. Evidence from the three standard books, and from the publications of the original church, the Reorganized Church, the Hedrickite faction, and from those of the Utah Church is presented in support of the claims of the Reorganized Church to be the successor of the original church, showing it to be the authorized and identical continuation of said original church and entitled to its property, while all other factions have departed from the original church in organization, in teaching, and in practice. The arguments of counsel of Complainant, now in print, accompany the Abstract until the supply is exhausted. A valuable volume of evidence for ministry and laity; useful in refuting the many misrepresentations of the early church and its ministry and membership. Each purchaser is furnished a copy of the Argument of Counsel before the United States Court of Appeals, St. Louis, Mo., February, 1895. MANUSCRIPT FOUND. This is the notorious Manuscript Found, written by Rev. Solomon Spalding; a verified and certified copy of the original now in Oberlin College, Ohio, of which so much has been said and written in connection with the theory that it furnished Joseph Smith and Sidney Rigdon the chief groundwork and material from which to write the Book of Mormon. The preface of the work contains an account of its coming to light; by which it can be traced to its author — Solomon Spalding. The work, suppressed for years by enemies of the Latter Day Saints, is a complete refutation of the charge made that it is the basis from which the Book of Mormon was written.

VISIONS OF JOSEPH SMITH, THE SEER.

A forty-eight page pamphlet, thirty-two of which contain an account of the angel's visit to Mr. Smith, the finding of ancient plates — the records from which the Book of Mormon was translated. It briefly recounts the leading events connected with Mr. Smith's early experiences up to the organization of the Church, in 1830. Three additional chapters describe American antiquities, Hebrew relics, one containing the statement of Dr. Lederer, a converted Jew, etc., all corroborative of the claims of the Book of Mormon. PATTIE; OR LEAVES FROM A LIFE. (With Introduction by Elder W. W. Blair.) A book in which is traced the intimate connection between the history of Protestantism and the founding of the government of the United States with the event of the restored gospel; interwoven with which is a tender story from real life, telling of the efforts of one to find the kingdom of God, its object being to trace God in modern history, and to show that his dealings with men are as clearly discernible now as in ancient times. 1898 TRUE SUCCESSION IN CHURCH PRESIDENCY. This is a book just issued by the Board of Publication of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, from the pen of Elder Heman C. Smith, Church Historian. It is a complete answer to and refutation of Elder B. H. Roberts on "Succession in the Presidency of the Church," and to Elder C. W. Penrose on "Priesthood and Presidency." It follows Mr. Roberts closely and points out his false statements, misrepresentations, historical inaccuracies, illogical arguments, and untenable interpretations; while answering Mr. Penrose directly and incidentally. It contains 167 pages, and is fully indexed.
