Lamoni, Iowa, April 8, 1903.

LAMONI, Iowa, March 27.

To the Saints; Greeting: The foregoing is the statement of the Herald Publishing House for 1902. The division of the receipts is accurate except the items of merchandise and miscellaneous which are but approximately correct owing to the fact that some of the merchandise was charged to individual accounts and some that had been previously charged to individual accounts were paid for and included in this statement.

The Saints will be glad to know that our new press is entirely paid for and rendering valuable service in helping meet the increasing demands of our work. The bills payable have been reduced thirteen hundred fifty dollars since the statement was made.

We appreciate the support given this department during the year that is past, and trust that all will feel a personal interest in the pushing of the printed word this year.

In gospel bonds,
F. B. BLAIR, Manager.
