HOW TO ORDER

In order to get what you want when you want it, please observe the following rules:

1. Order on time—subscription lists are made up two weeks in advance of mailing dates.

2. Always give your full name and complete address.

3. If you write about an order, always give the name and address of the party to whom, at the time, we are mailing the goods.

4. Always write plainly (it is better to print proper names); and specify clearly the goods to which you refer.

5. Don't waste time and make unnecessary work by trying to save a sheet of paper.

6. Remit by money order whenever possible. Currency is sent at your own risk.

7. Don't say: "Please renew my paper, or quarterly," for we have several papers, and several quarterlies, and will not know what you are writing about. Specify always the article to which you refer.

8. Remember there are three parties to every commercial transaction: the Buyer, the Seller, and the Carrier. And don't forget that your post office or station is next door to YOU, not to us, and that you may save yourself disappointment by applying to the Carrier for goods that for one cause or another may lie almost at your door undelivered.

9. Allow time for delay in transit, miscarriages, and a hundred other things that lengthen the time of delivery.

10. Complaints. Shortages. Renewals. Please remember that we have thousands of names on our subscription lists and that we are dependent upon you for the information that will get you what you want.

11. Finally: we are here to serve you—that's our business; and to please you if possible—that's our desire. Help us accomplish both by cooperating with us.

STYLES OF BINDING

The styles of binding are indicated by the last letter in the catalog number as follows:

- P—Paper cover.
- C—Cloth binding.
- CL—Cloth sides, with leather backs and corners.
- L—Stiff leather covers.
- F—Flexible Morocco.

For example, 900C means that this book is bound in cloth, while 900F is the same book in flexible Morocco.

NAMES ON BOOKS

A charge of 30 cents will be made for stamping one name in gold on any book. Same name on each additional book, 15 cents.

WE PAY THE POSTAGE

A few books in this catalog may carry a higher list price than they do in some other catalogs; but this is due to the fact that all of our prices include postage. In most catalogs, where publications are marked "net," the cost of carriage is to be added to the price.

We can not be responsible for safe delivery at destination. We guarantee safe and prompt delivery to the post office plainly addressed as per order, and if you wish we will insure packages for an additional fee of three cents.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

TO AGENTS AND CONFERENCE APPOINTEES

Discounts will not be allowed unless deducted when remittance is made. It is altogether out of the question to keep individual customers' accounts. Discounts are allowed to agents only after appointment has been properly confirmed by the General Publicity Agent, Independence, Missouri.

Please observe this rule carefully.

SUNDAY SCHOOL QUARTERLIES

Responding in recent months to a universal demand for a general improvement in our quarterlies, the entire series is being revised or rewritten to develop better continuity, to give freshness of appeal, improvement in method, and richness of subject matter. A more expensive paper is being used, and gradually a new supply of cuts is being secured to illustrate the text.

Every member of our schools should be supplied with a quarterly for study. No other school can run successfully without texts and without personal effort in study. The gospel quarterlies are being prepared to meet the need of the church.

A Graded Series

Our quarterly series may be termed "departmentally graded," there being three years' work of equal difficulty within each department, except the Kindergarten which has but two years, and the Adult Division which has a wide range of yearly electives. One year's quarterly is printed in each department, each year. This year (October, 1930, to October, 1931.) we shall be printing the first year of each series. Next year it will be the second year, the following year the third, and then back to the first year again in October, 1933.

How to Order

Small schools with but one class in a department should order the current quarterly, the one being printed for this year. However, sufficient copies are being printed each year and kept on hand so that larger schools may have two or more classes in each department, and supply each with appropriate subject matter. Those who order should try to indicate clearly by grade, year, title, and author, the quarterly wished, also quarter or quarters for which you are paying. Unless otherwise specified orders will be filled with current issues in each case.

While not graded within each department, there is a definite sequence of subject matter so planned that in regular progress from year to year and from department to department each growing person shall have the privilege to gain the whole range of informations and experiences basic in the faith, belief, and program of the church.

There are four quarters to the year. The first quarter is the October, November, December issue, to permit new classes to be formed for the year immediately after the promotion in September. The second quarter is January, February, March; the third, April, May, June; and the fourth, July, August, September.

The quarterly is prepared as a textbook in religion and should be the basis for study in every Sunday school of the church. Copies should be supplied by the school to individual members and for home use. They are printed with great care and should be used continuously throughout the quarter as a fund of information and as source material for recitation and discussion. They should be preserved for future use.

The Gospel Quarterlies are prepared by the Department of Religious Education of the church. They are designed for use in Latter Day Saint church schools on all study occasions, especially at the Sunday morning session. Order early that your teachers may have ample time for preparation of the new quarter's lessons. Order by the year and save your branch money and the publishing house much inconvenience. To get the yearly reduced rate, the full year's subscription must be paid in advance. All quarterlies are priced 15 cents per quarter, 50 cents per year. Subscriptions are promptly discontinued on expiration.

All orders must be accompanied by cash. Write for an order blank and price list for yearly quarterlies and for adult electives.

A Lesson Textbook

For the first time in our church a year's series of gospel lessons is to be prepared in book form for the library and as a textbook for class use; for young people and for adults, priesthood, women's groups, etc. Gospel Lesson Studies, by Anna Salyards, will be ready for use January 1, 1931. This is a revision by Mrs. Salyards of her former senior and young people's quarterly lessons, bound in a book, the first year of a three-year series. The present fifty-two lessons will be entitled, "Jesus and His Message."

HERALD PUBLISHING HOUSE

Independence, Missouri

THE SAINTS' HERALD

Averages over 1,500 pages to each volume, covering the issues of one calendar year. Each page of the Herald carries as many words as four pages of an average book, so the Herald is equal in amount to twenty ordinary books. Your reading matter in it at present subscription rates costs you at the rate of ten cents a book.

And you can not get the matter used for its pages in any other place. Official declarations and editorials from the Presidency of the church, and other leading officers, articles on history, doctrine, conduct, church development; news from every quarter of the church; notices, obituary of Saints, etc. It goes without saying that no one may be a live Saint and not read the Herald.

It is not enough to read it yourself. See that your friend, your neighbor, some one who does not now read it, begins to do so. Get a subscriber for the Herald.
